

N. Y. SOON WILL HAVE ANOTHER HOSPITAL

Work to Start on the St. Nicholas, Near West 140th St., Early in Year.

DIAGNOSIS A FEATURE

Plan Conceived by Family Which Suffered From Family Preliminary Examination.

New York is to have a new hospital, the St. Nicholas, which promises to occupy a unique place. Application for a charter, has been made to the State Board of Charities and it is expected that actual work will begin early in the coming year.

The hospital will occupy an attractive site in Midtown, near West 140th St. The east front will command an unobstructed view of Central Park, while the west front will overlook St. Nicholas avenue, which in that neighborhood is parked for a considerable distance.

The project was conceived by members of a New York family which has suffered from faulty diagnoses in a number of cases of illness. In accordance with their wish a special feature is to be made of the diagnosis department, which will be designed to give accurate and painstaking laboratory, X-ray and other special examinations prior to the admission of patients.

$10,000 Starts Fund.

Revelations made in the charities investigation a few months ago were another factor assisting the establishment of a hospital to be conducted on new lines. Members of this family, whose names are withheld for the present, at their own request, donated the site and have made the largest individual contribution, $10,000. A large part of the necessary building fund has already been subscribed, and it is hoped that the entire amount will be in hand within sixty days.

The president of the incorporating board of directors is Stephen Birch, president of the Knickerbocker Company. Other incorporating directors are Frank L. Clark, James H. Ralph and Henry Fletcher, together with the physicians and surgeons in charge of the medical organization. The president of the Washington Heights Taxpayers Association and the vice of the Church of the Intercession and the vice of the Church of the Holy Trinity are also members. Numerous civic organizations interested in the improvement of the heights section and a number of clergymen are active in the project. The medical division will be under the immediate direction of Dr. Harlow Brooks, professor of medicine in the University and visiting physician at Lincoln Hospital and at the Montefiore Hospital and at the Montefiore Home and Hospital in charge of the medical department of the National Guard of New York.

Surgeons in Charge. Dr. Seth M. Milliken and Dr. John J. Moorhead will be in charge of the medical branch. Dr. Milliken is secretary of the surgical section of the Academy of Medicine, visiting surgeon to Lincoln Hospital and visiting surgeon to the Montefiore Hospital. Dr. Moorhead is adjunct professor of surgery at the Post Graduate Hospital and visiting surgeon to the Harlem and Park hospitals.

The diagnosis department will be directed by a paid physician, who will devote his entire time to that work. The physician selected for this work is now engaged in such duties in the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. Every patient in this or any other department of the St. Nicholas Hospital will receive a service card entitling him to a free medical examination twice a year or oftener. By this plan it is hoped to encourage patients to submit to physical examinations at regular intervals.

Believing there is a great need in this city for adequate hospital care for reasonable fees, the project is being determined to provide exceptional medical and surgical attention at a reasonable outlay. The plans and general aims of the institution will be submitted to the hospital committee of the American College of Surgeons for approval. The hospital will be the first in the city to come within the scope of the organization, which endeavors to do for hospitals what the general educational board does in the way of standardizing medical colleges throughout the country.

The first building will be erected as a unit, with accommodations for sixty patients. The building will be a four-story high and fireproof. The site is sufficiently large to permit of the addition of other similar buildings as the need arises.

Twenty beds will be of the ward type, wholly or in great part free, and the others of the semi-private and private room type. The ward and semi-private beds will be arranged on the upper floor, making them practically of the private room type.

Twice as fast as a railroad train Ruth will take him there for a fee that will have as many points for a tall as a slow freight engine has for a low. On Tuesday she is going to Buffalo to draw up plans for her new machine, in consultation with the engineers of the Curtiss Aeroplane Company.

The new plane will be large enough to carry a ten hours fuel supply besides Miss Law and one or two passengers. Its speed will be 100 miles an hour at least.
